With Friends Like Chuck Schumer, Who Needs Enemies?

- Rather than taking tangible steps towards peace, [Palestinian Authority President Mahmoud] Abbas has done nothing but bypass and evade bilateral negotiations with Israel, while taking extremely tangible steps toward terrorism – from rewarding terrorists, or the families of those who murder Jews, with "$345-$1200" a month for life, to repeating that terrorist murderers are "heroes" -- all the while admitting that Palestinians are not the indigenous people there.
 - As for Schumer's "two-state solution," 64% of Palestinians said they are opposed to the idea. Those polled would like a one-state solution: a Palestinian state with no "Israel" anywhere in sight. More than 60% also expressed support for an "armed struggle" against Israel.
 - "[T]he only thing we should be focused on is changing the regime in Gaza, bringing down the terrorist regime of Hamas, and not the duly elected government of Israel." — Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, Fox News, March 17, 2024,

- The reason [the Palestinians] just keep "saying no" is because they do not want a Palestinian State next to Israel, they want a Palestinian State instead of Israel.
- Schumer, by signaling to Hamas and other terrorists that the Americans are on their side against Netanyahu and the Israeli government, has painstakingly emboldened them.
- Many Arabs understand -- unlike Schumer and many in the Biden administration -- that the real problem is the Iranian regime and its terror proxies.

In a speech on March 14, 2024, US Senate Democratic Majority Leader Chuck Schumer said:

"The only real and sustainable solution to this decades-old [Arab-Israeli] conflict is a negotiated two-state solution — a demilitarized Palestinian state living side-by-side with Israel in equal measures of peace, security, prosperity, dignity and mutual recognition."

Schumer and his friends in the Biden administration who continue to talk about a two-state solution are either naïve or ignorant of the sentiments among the Palestinians, most of whom support the Iran-backed Hamas terror group, which does not recognize Israel's right to exist and does seek to replace it with an Islamic state.

The 2024 "Annual Threat Assessment of the U.S. Intelligence Community," published by the Office of the Director of National Intelligence treats Israel's Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu like a leader to be overthrown and suggests that this would be a good outcome. It's a hostile act from a hostile administration that is doing everything it can to save Islamic terrorists. Since October 7, the Biden administration pivoted from backing Israel's effort to remove Hamas, to backing the effort by Hamas allies from Dearborn, Michigan to Doha, Qatar to overthrow the Israeli government in order to save Hamas.

One Israeli expert frequently consulted by American officials says: "I have been asked by a serious administration figure what it is that will force the Netanyahu coalition to collapse. They were interested in the mechanics, what can we demand which will collapse his coalition."

"What can we demand which will collapse his coalition" is revealing as hell. The Obama administration was infamous for trying to use pressure on Israel to create splits inside its coalition government. Biden's people are trying to do the same thing.

The report comes from Noga Tarnopolsky, and calling her biased and hostile is an understatement, but this stuff is now showing up in intelligence reports.
