

Email not displaying correctly? Click Here

ALJAZEERA

Your weekly highlights

05/05/2021

This week in East Jerusalem, dozens of Palestinians face being dispossessed of their homes in what they say is a move to force them out and replace them with a Jewish settlement.

In Australia, hundreds of people are "soiling their underpants" to see how healthy their gardens are.

And in the Middle East, relaxed visa requirements, shifting politics, and new transport connections promise to draw more visitors to the region.

What is happening in occupied East Jerusalem's Sheikh Jarrah?

Israel ordered six Palestinian families to leave their homes in Sheikh Jarrah on May 2 to make way for Jewish settlers.

Why some people are soiling their underwear to help the earth

Farmers and schoolchildren in Australia and New Zealand join global movement to improve health of world beneath our feet.

Travelling the Middle East will be the easiest it's ever been

Relaxed visa requirements, shifting politics, and new transport connections promise to draw more visitors to the region.

'Terminator of drones': China unveils stealth-detecting radars

Country's first portable and 'multipurpose' radar can be carried by a single soldier and can detect small and low-flying targets.

Manchester United fans invade stadium in protest against owners

Anti-Glazer movement has gained momentum following the club's failed attempt to join a breakaway Super League.

Mexico metro overpass collapses, killing 24 and injuring dozens

Children among those killed in Mexico City accident that also injured more than 60 people, including several in serious condition.

Want to learn more about the people and movements fighting for social justice and pushing for change?

SIGN UP FOR "SUBTEXT"
A NEWSLETTER FROM AJ+