The Oys and Joys of Parenting

If, as the Torah says, humans are similar to trees, then parenting is a lot like gardening. You can read about it in books, but you don't know what you're doing until you get your hands dirty.

A Month to Prepare

Throughout the month of Elul, the Jewish people has a collective task: to prepare itself to be inscribed and sealed for a good and sweet year. Indeed, there is a Jewish custom to wear white on Rosh Hashanah eve, to express the certainty that all will be inscribed in the Book of the Righteous. Clearly, then, the preparation for this must also be with unity.

What Is Midrash?

A clear explanation of what our Torah's sacred stories, known as Midrash, are and aren't. This brief overview of the origin and development of Judaism's oral traditions provide clarity on shadowy drama and colorful narratives whose messages are largely misunderstood, and often times ignorantly misconstrued.
