Hamas leader Ismail Haniyeh meets with Iran's Supreme Leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei in Tehran, June 22, 2023. Photo credit: SalamPix/ABACA via Reuters Connect.

Ismail Haniyeh, who was killed yesterday in Tehran:

- Was a mass murderer who helped organize the largest one-day massacre of Jews since the Holocaust
- Cynically and unabashedly used Palestinian lives, including children, as shrapnel in his obsessive war against Israel
- Stole billions of dollars in aid and enjoyed a life of luxury as his own people lived in abject poverty

When chanting protesters return to the universities this Fall, they should know that they will be parroting Haniyeh's mantra: "Armed resistance is a path, Palestine is from the river to the sea."

The world needs to back peacemakers, not genocide-seekers. Democracies, led by the US, should support Israel's quest to free the remaining hostages from the terror of Hamas - 298 days after they were kidnapped.
